Commissioner for Patents

The reply brief filed 11/25/2009 is noted. The appeal will be forwarded to the Board. Appellants are reminded that the reply brief appears to contain new arguments that could have been, but were not, presented in the principle brief, and that the Board will not consider these new arguments without a showing of good cause. 37 CFR 41, see also Ex parte Borden Appeal 2008-004312. Appellants might consider filing a RCE or taking other measures to have the appeal dismissed so that they can present these new arguments in a principle brief.
